CLARE FINDLAY JOINS GLOBAL GRAPHICS' BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Pompey (France), 13 July 2011: Global Graphics SA (NYSE-Euronext: GLOG) has announced that Clare Findlay was appointed a non-executive director at the shareholders' meeting held on 16 June 2011.

Ms Findlay has more than 20 years' experience at senior level positions in the computer software industry and is managing director of the UK operations of Concentrix Corporation, the global business process outsourcing division of SYNnex.

In 2003, Ms Findlay founded Aspire Technology, a European specialist in providing customer renewal services through its proprietary RenewalsManager SaaS platform, which was acquired in November 2010 by Concentrix Corporation.

Prior to founding Aspire, she was a divisional director of business technology integrator Morse Plc where she was responsible for Morse's entry into building a software services business. She has also held senior positions at Catalyst Solutions Plc and Pacific Associates Plc, before it was sold to Catalyst Solutions.

Johan Volckaerts, chairman of Global Graphics' Board of Directors commented: "We are delighted to welcome Clare to the board. She offers a wealth of knowledge of the computer software industry, combined with strong management and people skills."

For further information please contact Alain Pronost, Global Graphics' chief financial officer, either by e-mail at investor-relations@globalgraphics.com, or by written request sent to the Company's registered office in Pompey (France).
